Summer is a magical time here in Arizona's White Mountains. With beautiful blue skies, abundant sunshine, and so many fun events, social gatherings, and recreational opportunities, there's no better place to be than right here at Woodfield and "around the Mountain."

Independence Day is just around the corner, and there are a number of exciting celebrations lined up! Join us for our very own July 4th BBQ at The Pavilion—it's a perfect way to enjoy good food, great company, and the festive spirit. Don't miss Show Low's annual parade and FreedomFest or explore the 49th Annual High Country Fine Arts & Crafts Show at The Orchard at Charlie Clarks in Pinetop.

Inside this edition of our newsletter, you'll find detailed information about these events and many more local activities. Whether you're keen on participating in a professionally guided nature walk at the White Mountain Nature Center or joining in Zumba, Movie Night or BINGO right here at Woodfield, there's something for everyone.

For a complete listing of what's happening at Woodfield, please email woodfieldrvactivities@gmail.com or stop by The Pavilion where it's posted on the bulletin board outside.

Thank you for being a part of our beautiful Woodfield Community Together, we create a special place filled with laughter, fun, and friendship! I'll see you at Coffee & Donuts on July 19th. Warm regards,

- Chris

Pitalian is one of the newest additions to the local dining scene, offering a delightful blend of Italian and Mediterranean flavors. The menu features mouth-watering options made with fresh, high-quality ingredients – including artisanal pizzas, fresh salads, hearty pasta dishes, as well as a variety of small plates. Noteworthy items include their 4 Corners Pizza (perfect for meat lovers) and their Bucatini Mornay, a fat spaghetti-like pasta with house made mornay, served with fresh, crusty bread. Looking for something lighter? Try their the Pitalian Salad, a blend of romaine, spinach, roasted red bell pepper, artichoke, corn, tomato, kalamata olives, mozzarella, sweet peppers, basil, and house dressing. With its cozy ambiance and friendly service, Pitalian is an excellent spot for a casual lunch, a family dinner, or a relaxed evening out with friends.

Location: 1401 E Woolford Road, Suite B, Show Low, AZ 85901

What's Happening

AROUND THE MOUNTAIN

SHOW LOW'S 4TH OF JULY PARADE & FREEDOM FEST

Celebrate Independence Day on Thursday, July 4, at two of Show Low's most popular annual events — the 4th of July Parade in the morning and Freedom Fest in the afternoon. Find your spot to watch the annual parade, which begins at 9 a.m., along the Deuce of Clubs. At 3 p.m., head over to the Show Low football stadium complex, 500 W. Old Linden Road, for FreedomFest. Check out local vendors, live music, and enjoy fun food, including kettle corn, Indian Tacos, funnel cakes and other delectable treats. Watch the highly entertaining Paul Bunyan Lumberjack Show and just after dark take in the spectacular fireworks display! For more information, call Show Low Parks and Recreation at 928-532-4141. COST: FREE!

49TH ANNUAL FINE ARTS & CRAFTS FESTIVAL

Come on out on July 4, 5 & 6 to The Orchard at Charlie Clark's (1701 E. White Mountain Blvd.) in Pinetop to experience some of the best artistic talent in Arizona's White Mountains! Explore a wide variety of masterpieces from more than 50 artists specializing in: painting, clay, metal art, glass, wood, photography, jewelry, mixed media, and more! There will be live music and delicious food and drinks on offer from Charlie Clark's. Presented by the High Country Art Association. To learn more visit: highcountryartgallery.com

WHITE MOUNTAIN NATURE CENTER

Attention nature lovers! Join in free guided hikes on Saturday mornings at 8:30 am. Hikes are conducted on the beautifully lush Nature Center property and around Big Springs. The pace is leisurely with little gain in elevation. Here's the lineup for July:

July 6th Forest Ecology with Ron Miller

Arizona is home to the largest contiguous stand of Ponderosa pine in the world! Come learn interesting biological and cultural facets of Ponderosa pine ecosystems from a retired Supervisory Forester who has lived and worked in the White Mountains for over 20 years.

July 13th Forest Hiking and Well-Being with Susan High

Enjoy a relaxing and calming stroll through Ponderosa pines with a retired counselor, teacher, and yoga instructor. Along the way, you will learn and practice some easy techniques to lower stress and improve your inner sense of calm and well-being.

July 20th Edible Plants with Rick Gagnon

Join a former Arizona Parks Ranger on a short walk to Big Springs and back and have a chance to learn about edible plants (possibly mushrooms too) and taste some wild treats directly from nature. After the hike, be sure to check out the fascinating edible and medicinal table inside the Nature Center. Taste testing and demonstrations from 10 am to noon.

Making Updates:

A Friendly Reminder

Please keep in mind that any project that alters the exterior appearance of any structure or space, including (but not limited to) park model additions, landscaping, driveway, lighting, must kindly be pre-approved by the Woodfield Management Team. Your best bet is to ask us any questions about potential alterations or submit a service request for the work you would like done. Thank you for understanding we don't want anyone to have to "un-do" anything. We deeply appreciate your cooperation!

Have a Service Request?

If you would like to submit a service request, simply visit woodfieldrv.com/residents to access our convenient online Service Request Portal. Whether it's construction, landscaping, or any other project, we're here to help make your Woodfield Home even more special. If you need assistance with the portal, please contact our Office Team to set up a quick tutorial on how to use it.

For our current Activities Calendar, please see the bulletin board outside of The Pavilion or email woodfieldrvactivities@gmail.com.
